DETAILED ACTION

Double Patenting

1. A rejection based on double patenting of the "same invention" type finds its support in the language of 35 U.S.C. 101 which states that "whoever invents or discovers any new and useful process ... may obtain a patent therefor ..." (Emphasis added). Thus, the term "same invention," in this context, means an invention drawn to identical subject matter. See Miller v. Eagle Mfg. Co., 151 U.S. 186 (1894); In re Ockert, 245 F.2d 467, 114 USPQ 330 (CCPA 1957); and In re Vogel, 422 F.2d 438, 164 USPQ 619 (CCPA 1970).

A statutory type (35 U.S.C. 101) double patenting rejection can be overcome by canceling or amending the conflicting claims so they are no longer coextensive in scope. The filing of a terminal disclaimer cannot overcome a double patenting rejection based upon 35 U.S.C. 101.

2. Claims 12-13 of the present invention are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 101 as claiming the same invention as that of claims 1-2 of prior U.S. Patent No. 6,249,958.

This is a double patenting rejection.

Claims 12-13 are rejected under the judicially created doctrine of obviousness-type double patenting as being unpatentable over claims 1-2 of U.S. Patent No. 6,249,958. The conflicting claims are not patentably distinct from each other because the subject matter claimed in the instant application is fully disclosed in the patent and is covered by the patent since the patent and the application are claiming common subject matter, as follows:

Bubino et al claim a method of using a pulling tool for pulling off a rotor of a motor, etc., as recited in details in independent claim 12 of the present application claims (compare claims 1-2, col. 9-10 of Bubino et al).

As applied to claim 13, Bubino et al claim the limitation of claim 13 (compare claim 2 of Bubino et al).

Art Unit: 3729

Note: a) the double patenting rejection set forth above can be overcome by canceling or amending the conflicting claims so they are no longer coextensive in scope. b) The filing of a terminal disclaimer cannot overcome the above rejection.

Prior Art References

3. The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure. Prior art references are cited for their teaching of method of using a pull tool.
